Gair gan Gyfarwyddwr yr Ŵyl

Jeremy Turner

Croeso mawr i chi i'r 6ed Gŵyl Agor Drysau. Mae Arad Goch wedi bod ynghlwm a threfnu'r ŵyl arbennig yma ers deuddeng mlynedd ac un peth sy'n sicr, yw bod ein bywydau ni a'r miloedd o blant sydd wedi ymweld â'r ŵyl lot cyfoethocach o'r herwydd. Bwriad yr ŵyl yw cyflwyno plant a phobl ifanc Cymru i raglen amrywiol o theatr, o bypedau i ddawnsio hip hop, a chynnig y cyfle gorau posibl iddynt brofi'r celfyddydau perfformio.

Erbyn hyn mae'r ŵyl wedi hen ennill ei phlwyf, a mae athrawon Ceredigion yn awchu ar y cyfle. Hoffwn ddiolch iddynt am eu brwdfrydedd a'u cefnogaeth.

Mae'r ŵyl yn bosibl oherwydd nawdd a chymorth ein noddwyr a phartneriaid amrywiol, diolch yn arbennig i Gyngor Celfyddydau Cymru a Chyngor Sir Ceredigion. Llawer o ddiolch hefyd i Ganolfan y Celfyddydau Aberystwyth, Morlan ac Amgueddfa Ceredigion am eu cyd-weithrediad. Mwynhewch! Yr unig beth sy'n anodd am yr ŵyl yma yw dewis beth i weld!

A word from the Festival Director -

A very warm welcome to the sixth Agor Drysau / Opening Doors festival. Arad Goch has been organising this unique festival for twelve years and one thing is definite, our lives and the lives of the thousands of children and young people that have visited the festival have been enriched. The aim of the festival programme is to present a variety of work, from puppetry to contemporary dance, bringing much-needed opportunities for children and young people to engage with the performing arts.

By now the festival is a must in the local calendar, with teachers chomping at the bit to book tickets and make the most of this opportunity. I'd like to thank them for their continued support and enthusiasm.

The festival is possible due to the support of our funders, sponsors and partners, a thank you to all of them especially the Arts Council of Wales and Ceredigion County Council. A big thank you to Aberystwyth Arts Centre, Morlan and Ceredigion Museum for their co-operation.

All I have to say now is – Enjoy! The only thing that's hard about this festival is choosing what to see!

Gardd Popeth Posibl
The Garden of Possibility

Creator & Gardener/Crewr a'r Garddwr: Benoît Sicat

In the Garden of Possibility the audience helps the Gardener to build and prepare the garden. An enchanting experience for the children involved with no language barriers. It is a chance for children to touch and play with natural elements, build and knock down, arousing the awareness of touch and image. This production is ideal for Foundation Phase activity, giving the audience the opportunity to play in a creative environment. Everything is possible in this garden.

Cyfle i blant gyffwrdd a thrin gwrthrychau byd natur a chynorthwyo'r garddwr i baratoi'r ardd. Dyma brofiad cofiadwy i'r gynulleidfa ddysgu drwy chwarae a chreu.

A play full of colour, unlike anything you have seen before and a story to make you smile. With a little queen, several brushes, paper, a water glass, video projection, puppetry, live music on the accordion, this charming play is jammed packed full of treats – including dancing flowers! Les Voisins have toured the production successfully to many countries.

Dyma ddrama llawn lliw fydd yn rhoi gwên ar eich wyneb. Wrth ddilyn y Frenhines Liwgar gyda sawl brwsh paent, lot o bapur, dŵr, acordion, cerddor y llys a pheintiwr y llys mae'r cyfan yn fyw o'ch blaen. Mae gan y ddrama yma bob dim – gan gynnwys blodau yn dawnsio!

Gwen is a very anxious little girl who sees the worst in every situation. One day, whilst her father reads her the story 'Martha's Troubles', the main character, a cat, comes alive. Following a few adventures Gwen relaxes and realises that she can succeed and overcome her difficulties by trusting others.
With live music, songs and puppetry 'Martha's Troubles' invites children to use their imagination and experience a wealth of feelings and emotions.

Mae Gwen yn ferch fach bryderus dros ben. Mae'n ofni'r gwaethaf ym mhob sefyllfa a does neb yn deall pam. Ond un diwrnod, wrth i'w thad ddarllen stori 'Martha Drafferthus' iddi daw'r prif gymeriad, sy'n gath, i fyd Gwen. Yn raddol, mae perthynas yn datblygu rhwng y ddwy wrth iddynt ddod i ddeall a pharchu ei gilydd. Trwy gyfrwng cerddoriaeth fyw, caneuon a phypedau, cawn berfformiad sy'n herio'r plant i ddefnyddio'u dychymyg a phrofi ystod o deimladau ac emosiynau.

'A Word's a Word' by Michael Ramløse, one of Denmark's most respected dramatists, is a play with layers of meaning and charm for children and their families. The two main characters open a shop, a shop like no other – it sells words! Through comedy the show appeals to children who are still learning the value and power of words – happy words, quiet words, useful words, naughty and good words. A witty translation by Rob Parr.

Drama hyfryd sy'n llawn haenau o ystyr a hwyl ar gyfer plant iau a'u teuluoedd. Mae'r ddau brif gymeriad yn agor siop ond nid un arferol, siop ydyw sy'n gwerthu geiriau! Trwy chwerthin ac ystum corff mae'r sioe yn apelio at blant sydd dal i ddysgu pwer a gwerth geiriau - geiriau hapus, tawel, drwg a da, cyflythrennu, odl a rhythm. Cyfieithiad gan Mari Rhian Owen o'r ddrama 'Et ord et ord' gan Michael Ramløse o Ddenmarc.

Beth sydd yn y Blwch Aur cafodd Jac yn anrheg wrth ffarwelio â'i dad? Wrth adael y goedwig am y tro cyntaf erioed, mae ei feddwl yn llawn cwestiynau. Dewch ar daith gyda Jac wrth iddo gwrdd a Brenhinoedd Llygod, Llyffantod, Adar yr holl fyd a goroesi tasgau rhyfeddol gyda chymorth cynnwys y Blwch Bach Aur. Yn 'Jac a'r Blwch Aur' mae Cath Aran ac Idris Morris Jones yn plethu dylanwad unigryw chwedlau rhyngwladol y Sipsiwn Cymreig, a cherddoriaeth traddodiadol y Cymry, gyda'u hwyl lliwgar ac egni arferol.

What is in the Golden Box given to Jac by his father? Leaving the forest for the first time in his life, Jac's head is full of questions. Come with Jac to meet the kings of all the mice, frogs, and the birds in the sky, as well as performing amazing tasks aided by the contents of his Golden Box! In Jac and the Golden Box, the unique influence of the Welsh Gypsies, european folktales, and Welsh folk music is combined with Cath Aran and Idris Morris Jones' colourful humour and infectious energy.

Olwen Medi sy'n cyflwyno syniadaeth a bwriad y rhaglen wreiddiol yma sydd wedi' hysbrydoli gan eiriau a bywyd y bardd R.S.Thomas. Mae'r geiriau mae dyn yn eu llefaru yn diffinio ein lle yn y byd. Ble ydyn ni. Pwy ydyn ni a sut ydyn ni. Mewn orig fer cawn flas ar siwrnai ble mae'r plant ar ddiwrnod ysgol yn ymuno â pherenindod i ddod o hyd i eiriau, geiriau mae un calon fach cymaint eu hangen. Geiriau sy'n agor cil y drws…

Inspired by the words and life of the poet R.S.Thomas 'Cwmwl Tystion' is all about words. Olwen Medi will introduce the theory and ideas of this original programme that is produced during a day in schools. Words define who we are in the world, they tell us about the world around us. This is a story where the children join a pilgrimage in search of words, words that one little heart needs so much. "Words are so important" (R.S.Thomas)

Boy with a Suitcase by Mike Kenny is the story of a 12 year old war refugee called Naz, who undertakes a long journey to find asylum in another country. He carries with him only a suitcase, containing a few belongings and the many stories his family has told him throughout his childhood. A gritty tale of our time, this is cutting-edge theatre for young audiences.

Drama ar ei orau ar gyfer cynulleidfaoedd ifanc yn dilyn helynt Naz, bachgen 12 mlwydd oed wrth iddo geisio ffoi o'i wlad. Yr unig beth sydd ganddo yw ei gás, sy'n llawn straeon ac atgofion.

A beautiful puppet performance for children which deals with one of the hardest subjects in a sensitive, funny and touching way. "Well. That was it. Now I am dead". The play is about Benjamin facing the new situation he is in, about a cool funeral car, a birthday present, friendship and living on. Performed with the help of a big ball, some puppets, a viola, story-teller and of course, a puppeteer.

Sioe bypedau ddoniol, annwyl a sensitif yn dilyn hanes Benjamin a'i deulu wrth iddynt alaru a ffarwelio â'i gilydd. Daw'r stori yn fyw gyda chymorth pêl fawr, pypedau, viola, cerddor, storïwr ac wrth gwrs pypedwr.

When Charles Darwin was stumped for an answer to why certain species were the way they were, the advice given to him was - “You should ask Wallace”. This performance focuses on Alfred Russel Wallace’s inspirational character, a scientist from Usk who discovered the theory of evolution by natural selection, and then shared that idea with Darwin. “You should ask Wallace” is a wonderful piece of educational yet entertaining theatre, which will capture your heart and mind.

Pan oedd Charles Darwin yn dal i chwilio am atebion, y cyngor â gafodd oedd ‘Gofynnwch i Wallace’. Mae’r perfformiad yn cyflwyno’r gwyddonydd blaengar o Brynbuga, Alfred Russel Wallace gwnaeth sefydlu’r cysyniad o ddewis naturiol ym myd natur. Dyma i chi theatr addysgiadol ac adloniannol bydd yn gafael yn eich calon a’ch meddwl.

Two-in-One stunned Agor Drysau audiences in 2003 with their combination of skateboarding, body-popping and dance. They’re back again with this new work, Bodyparkour, reflecting on the parallel approach of contemporary dance and the art of street movement. The work combines break-dance, hip-hop, capoeira and the current trend sports of Tricking, Parkour & Freerunning.

Daeth Two-in-One i Agor Drysau yn gyntaf yn 2003 a chyfareddu cynulleidfaoedd gyda’i cymysgedd o ddawns, sglefyrddio a popio. Mae nhw nôl unwaith eto gyda gwaith newydd yr un mor llawn egni - Bodyparkour - yn cyflwyno dulliau cyfochrog dawns gyfoes a symudiad y stryd. Dyma gyfuniad o hip hop, capoeira a’r trend diweddara o parkour a rhyddredeg.

Stage Manager/Rheolwr Llwyfan: Emma Holwill

In a cruel world where everyone is judged by appearances, two unlikely friends tell it as it is: Big Fat chubber – Pizza face – You're ugly – Ginger Minger. Taking pleasure in taunting and teasing 'cos it's a laugh', the tables are turned and the hurt they cause and the damage they do leads them to realise that maybe what's on the inside counts too. A provocative new play for teenagers from playwright Gary Owen and director Sarah Argent.

Mewn byd creulon ble gaiff pawb eu barnu gan eu edrychiad, mae dau ffrind yn dweud y gwir wrth bobl ac yn cymryd pleser wth blagio a dannod. Caiff yr hwyl ei droi wyneb yn waered ac wrth weld y boen a'r niwed mae'r ffrindiau yn dechrau ystyried bod yr hyn sydd y tu mewn yn bwysig hefyd.

There is a fifth dimension, beyond that which is known to man. It lies between the pit of man's fears and the summit of his knowledge. Meibion Dance Theatre (formally known as Dynion) enter this dimension. Be prepared for ectoplasm and to scream and laugh as you enter the Paranormal.

Mae yna bumed dimensiwn, sydd y tu hwnt i ddyn. Mae'n gorwedd rhwng ofnau tywyll dyn a brig ei wybodaeth. Bydd Cwmni Dawns Meibion (Dynion gynt) yn eich tywys i'r dimensiwn yma. Byddwch yn barod i sgrechian, chwerthin ac ectoplasm wrth i chi fyned i'r Paranormal.

To celebrate 20 years Cwmni Theatr Arad Goch ran a scriptwriting competition, the only brief was the play needed to be suitable for an audience of children or young people. The six plays performed in the Rehearsed Readings are the competition finalist and you as an audience are the prize.

I ddathlu 20 mlynedd gwnaeth Cwmni Theatr Arad Goch redeg cystadleuaeth sgwennu sgript. Yr unig ofyniad oedd bod y sgript yn addas ar gyfer cynulleidfa o blant neu bobl ifanc. Y chwech sgript sydd yn cael eu perfformio yn y Darlleniadau Cyhoeddus yw'r rhai a ddaeth i'r brig a cael chi yn gynulleidfa yw'r wobr.
